LYNCROFT GARDENS — NW6

PRIVATE REAR GARDEN

LYNCROFT GARDENS — NW6

From the moment you enter this meticulously restored Edwardian house, the dramatically decorated entrance hallway offers a prelude to the family home that lies beyond.

The line of sight offers an immediate glimpse of the sun-drenched west-facing garden, viewed through the kitchen's full-height powder-coated steel doors, which allow for a seamless link between interior and exterior living spaces.

The ground floor provides exceptional reception space, including a full width open plan kitchen/ dining area, featuring a bespoke deVOL kitchen with Carrara marble countertops and splashbacks, and a more formal double reception room to the front of the house, including a TV area and a dry bar.

A large, air conditioned principal bedroom suite occupies the entire first floor, and comprises a dressing room, a full bathroom with separate shower and bespoke double vanity unit.

Four further double bedrooms and two further bathrooms provide the ideal balance of accommodation for a growing family, and a full height basement allows for future development, and in the meantime an abundance of storage.

Positioned 300m from West End Lane, and just over 1km from Hampstead High Street, Lyncroft Gardens provides easy access to every conceivable amenity.

Some of the best schools in the country can be found locally. West End Lane and Heath Street benefit from an abundance of shops, cafés and restaurants. You're only ten minutes from Bond Street on the Jubilee Line, Hampstead Heath on the London Overground and London St Pancras on the Thameslink.
